Homework for Parents: Student Inventory & Permission Form

Dear Parents,

The purpose of this inventory is to give me a better understanding of some of your child's interests and skills. I will use this information as I plan units and individual lessons to meet the interests and challenge your child this school year.

Your feedback is very important to me and I thank you for taking the time to complete this survey.

Thanks for your help!

Beth Burge

Publishing Student Work Permission Form

I am writing to request your consent to publish your child's work on our class website. This work may include classroom projects and assignments, and I am excited at the possibility of publishing your child's own writing. The class website is open to the public and therefore, due to its nature has a potential limitless audience. I appreciate your time in considering this opportunity for your child.

Please respond below and return this form to Mrs. Burge by Tuesday, October 14th.

- I give Mrs. Burge permission to publish my child's classroom projects and assignments on the class website.
- I do NOT give Mrs. Burge permission to publish my child's classroom projects and assignments on the class website.
